FINDING A PURCHASE ORDER NUMBER IN ORACLE

Once your requisition has been submitted and approved, you may look in Oracle to find the PO number:

lain Menu
	Personalize
Application Diagnostics
I DYT Employee Self-Service
1 NYIT Manager Self-Service
⊞
□ □ NYIT_GL_12501
Notifications Summary
🗷 Supplier Item Catalog
Item Search
Requisitions
Requisitions Summary
🕀 🛄 Budget Inquiry
Purchasing Super User

Click on "Requisitions Summary."

Find Requisitions
Operating Unit Requisition Number Preparer Buyer Reference Num	New York Institute of Te	Type Requester Modified Import Source	▼
Line		Line Type
Line Status Date Ranges Item, Rev Category Description Supplier Item	Sourcing Deliver To Related Documen	ts	Results ⊙ Hegders ○ Lines ○ Distributions
	Clear	New	Find ( B )

Enter your Requisition Number in the field indicated; click on "Find."

Number Description		Approval Status	Creation Date	Curre
2		Approved 09-MAY-2017		6:36:17 USD
				-
				-
(4)			Л	Þ

Click on "Lines."

Requesting Org	Number	Line	Rev	ltem	Description	Category
New York Institu	2	1			4	PCS020
•		1

The screen shown above will appear with your requisition information displayed. Scroll all the way to the right...

ivered	Location	Order Number	Purchasing Org	Contract Num	Ver	[]
			New York Institu		0	)
1
1
ji.
3						×

and the above information will come into view. Your PO number is shown under the "Order Number" column. (If no order number is indicated your requisition has not made it through the approval chain – see "Checking the Status of your Requisition" for instructions on how to determine the status of your Requisition).