ANTHONY CROCITTO • FOURTH SEASON • HOFSTRA '95

Anthony Crocitto was named head women's basketball coach at NYIT in 2009 and enters his fourth season at the helm of the Bears program.

Crocitto and the Bears continued to double their wins tally in 2011-2012 and produced the program's best record of 16-13. NYIT finished 9-7 in East Coast Conference play, and earning the Bears third ECC playoff berth. However, they fell 85-70 to neighboring LIU Post in the quarterfinals. Three Bears were named All-ECC - Cierra Baker, Rebecca Lynch and Nikki Jo Rotolo and Crocitto earned his first coaching honor when he was named the All-Met Division II Women's Coach of the Year.

In 2010-2011, NYIT rebounded with an 8-18 overall record and a 6-15 ECC mark. Junior transfer Cierra Baker, who played for Crocitto at Longwood University, averaged a season double-double with 17.5 points per game and 12.4 rebounds per game and earned All-ECC first team and All-Met honors. Freshman Demitra Apergis finished eighth in the ECC in assists after leading NYIT with 70 and earned All-Rookie team honors.

BY THE NUMBERS

- 5 All-East Coast Conference selections
- 1 All-Met Division II Coach of the Year
- 1 All-Met selection

Crocitto's first season with the Bears was a true transition year as they compiled a meager 4-23 overall record and a 4-15 mark in the ECC.

Crocitto brings a total 13 years of collegiate coaching experience to his position. Most recently, he spent two seasons as the top assistant for the women's basketball program at Longwood University.

Prior to his time at Longwood, Crocitto served as the assistant head coach at the University of Central Florida in Orlando (2006-2007) after a two-year stint (2004-2006) as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Hofstra University in Hempstead, N.Y.

As a first assistant coach at Fairleigh Dickinson University, Crocitto helped the program achieve a fourth-place national academic ranking when FDU posted an NCAA Division I Top 10 turnaround season (2003-2004).

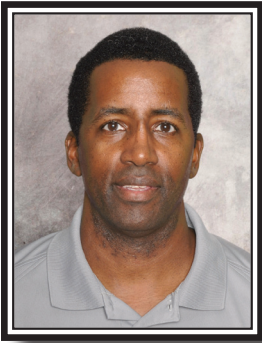

Crocitto has also held head coaching positions at Mount Ida and Dowling. During his tenure at Dowling, he helped the school to at least 15 wins during three of four seasons after the program had won just 10 games combined during the previous four years.

Crocitto has served as the recruiting coordinator at each of his previous collegiate coaching stops since 1997.

Crocitto coordinated a recruiting class at UCF that included three national rankings in the nation's top 50, while also assisting with academic monitoring that led to a team GPA above 3.0 each semester. He helped accomplish the same team academic successes at Hofstra, which finished 19-12 during 2005-2006 en route to earning the school's first post-season win in the WNIT.

Crocitto was also head basketball coach at Holy Child High School in Westbury, N.Y. (1994-1996), and director and head coach for both St. Martin of Tours Basketball program in Amityville, N.Y. (1989-96) and Amityville Warriors AAU Basketball (1993-1996). He was head baseball coach at Walt Whitman High School in Huntington, N.Y. (1994-1996), La Salle Center in Oakdale, N.Y. (1997-1998), and at Bayport/Blue Point High School in Blue Point, N.Y. (1998-2000). Crocitto has worked at numerous summer camps as both a coach and administrator/director.

A native of Amityville, N.Y., he earned a Bachelor of Arts in management with a minor in psychology from Hofstra in 1995. He and wife Kristin, an elementary education teacher, reside in Huntington Station with their daughter, Skai Grace.

WAYNE JONES

Assistant Coach
Third season at NYIT

Wayne Jones joined NYIT's women's basketball coaching staff in the fall of 2010. As a player development specialist, Jones handles player shooting, footwork, and team defense.

Jones has been involved with basketball for more than 20 years and his coaching has produced top players at the Division I, II, and III levels. His top players, including Luka Hocesvar, have gone on to play professionally in Europe, and most recently, Ryan Kannegister signed with the American Basketball Association's Colorado Cougars.

Jones' tie to the Bears program come from having co-directed St. Martins of Amityville's C.Y.O. program with NYIT head coach Anthony Crocitto and training 2010-2011 East Coast Conference All-Rookie combo guard Demitra Apergis.

Jones started his high school coaching career in 1995 at Colorado Academy in Denver, Colo. He remained there through the 1999 season. As the head men's varsity coach at Colorado Academy, Jones' teams regularly competed for the league championship.

Jones continued his career of developing players with 15 years of camp coaching at the prestigious Hoop Group Camps (formerly Eastern Invitational). At the Hoop Group, Jones worked with Dave Hopla, a world-renowned shooting instructor; Bob Hurley Sr., a Basketball Hall of Fame member; Kevin Boyle, the 2011 High School National Coach of the Year; and Mike Rice of Rutgers University.

Jones studied Sports Industry Operations at Metropolitan State College of Denver, Colo. He is a native of Massapequa, N.Y., and resides in the Pennsylvania Poconos with his wife Traci, son Kes-hawn, and daughter Kiaya.

LISA CLAXTON

Assistant Coach
Second season at NYIT

Lisa Claxton joined the NYIT women's basketball program in September 2011. No stranger to the East Coast Conference, Claxton played one season at Molloy and helped the Lions to the 2009-2010 ECC Championship.

Claxton graduated from St. John's University with a bachelor's degree in sports management before transferring to Molloy for graduate school. While with the Red Storm, Claxton helped the team to its first NCAA Appearance since 1988.

Claxton graduated from Cardinal O'Hara High School as one of the top point guards in Philadelphia. She helped her team to a No. 14 national ranking and the top spot in the state of Pennsylvania. A two-time Street and Smith's honorable mention, Claxton averaged 10 points, six assists, and 3.8 steals per game. For her efforts, she was earned All-Catholic League and All-City honors.

Claxton is one of seven children, four of whom played basketball. Most notable is her brother Craig "Speedy" Claxton, a retired NBA player and currently a scout for the Golden State Warriors. Additionally, brother Michael played at Villanova and sister Stacey Ann played for Hofstra.

KAYLA KOCH

Assistant Coach
First season at NYIT

Kayla Koch joined the NYIT women's basketball program in the fall of 2012.

"I am very excited to have Kayla join us," said head coach Anthony Crocitto. "She played in a successful program at Farmingdale, and her excitement will help us. Kayla is eager to get involved ASAP, and we are so grateful to add another coach on staff."

Koch comes to NYIT after playing stints at Farmingdale State and Concordia College. While at Farmingdale State, she helped the Rams to the 2010 Skyline Championship and earned multiple Player of the Week honors. She played just one season for Concordia.

A 2008 graduate of Kings Park (N.Y.) High School, Koch was named all-county, all-league and team MVP. She was also an all-county and all-league tennis player.

Koch received her bachelor's degree in technology studies from Farmingdale State in May 2012 and currently works for American Express Travel Impressions as a database coordinator.

“ I love that my basketball program really embraces community service, from fighting cancer to coordinating pen-pal letters with elementary schools. Community service plays a big role in making our student-athletes wellrounded and ready for life after graduation. We do all we can, but at the end of the day we know we want to do more. ”

Head Women's Basketball Coach
Anthony Crocitto

OUR GOAL

New York Institute of Technology (NYIT) is committed to developing student-athletes and building strong relationships with local communities by engaging in community service programs that:

- 👣 promote the image and identity of NYIT both internally and externally;
- 👣 provide learning experiences for student-athletes, including leadership and team building;
- 👣 develop role models and mentors for young people in the community who might not otherwise aspire to attend an institution of higher learning.

NYIT student-athletes are committed to enriching the surrounding communities through service with their time and efforts. This is accomplished through mentoring children in schools, participating in sports clinics, reading at neighborhood elementary schools, visiting with senior citizens, and cooking at the Ronald McDonald House. These are just a few examples of the projects in which NYIT student-athletes have participated.

At NYIT, community service and outreach programs are paramount to the development of the student-athlete experience. NYIT student-athletes spend more than 2,000 hours in community service projects each academic year.

The New York Institute of Technology Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation received an East Coast Conference Community Engagement Award of Excellence for the third annual "Night Out on the Bears" event. The award is presented annually to an institution that hosts an activity on its campus that embodies the principles of community engagement by building relationships and bridging the gap between campus and community.

Women's Basketball Visits the Boys and Girls Club of Hicksville

HICKSVILLE, N.Y. (Oct. 7, 2011) – The NYIT women's basketball team spent a Friday afternoon at the Boys and Girls Club of Hicksville. The Bears taught their cubs fundamentals of basketball, such as dribbling and free throw shooting, while answering questions about school and athletics.

"Our athletes love getting out into the local community and helping kids not only have fun but enriching their lives on so many levels," said head women's basketball coach Anthony Crocitto.

NYIT Athletics Hosts Fifth Annual Night Out on the Bears Community Engagement Event

OLD WESTBURY, N.Y. (Dec. 8, 2011) – The NYIT community filled Recreation Hall with laughing children, triumphant cheers, sparkles, and school pride as the NYIT Department Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation hosted its fifth annual "Night Out on the Bears" community engagement event.

Held on Friday, Dec. 2 at NYIT's Old Westbury campus, "Night Out on the Bears" gave parents from the community an opportunity to enjoy an evening out while student-athletes and staff cared for their children in a safe, healthy, and fun-filled environment, free of charge. Activities included a nutritious dinner, catered by NYIT's Campus Dining, as well as various physical activities such as musical dots.

NYIT's Student Government Association (SGA) sponsored the arts and crafts portion of the night that included a face painter and several holiday craft stations.

"I am very proud of the combined efforts of our student-athletes, coaches, administrators and the SGA, in making this community engagement a staple for our athletics department," said Director of Athletics Clyde Doughty Jr. "This event has grown each year and continues to provide the community with an outstanding experience that children and parents remember for years to come."

Many parents echoed those same sentiments, including Robert Quan whose children attended the event. "It is a great event. It gives us as parents a break and chance to run around without the kids, while they have fun and make new friends."

Women's basketball participates in NYIT's first "Coaches vs. Cancer" game.

Clyde M. Doughty Jr. 30 Years

Clyde Doughty, Jr., actually has been at NYIT for 36 years, since the day he first attended a class at the Old Westbury campus (1976). A native of Hollis, Queens, New York, Doughty attended Brooklyn Technical High School, where he played three seasons of varsity basketball.

He earned a scholarship to NYIT and during his basketball career, the Bears made it to the NCAA Tournament twice, losing in the championship game to Virginia Union in 1979-80. After graduating, Doughty became the academic advisor to student-athletes, and three years later, he became the Assistant Director of Athletics. In 1988, he succeeded Dr. William T. Lai as Director of Athletics.

Doughty currently oversees intercollegiate, recreational and intramural athletic programs at the Old Westbury and Manhattan campuses. He counts among his achievements enhancing the athletics department's organizational structure and stability, and improving the academic performances of NYIT's student-athletes. During Doughty's tenure, the Bears have made numerous appearances in NCAA and ECAC post-season play. The men's lacrosse team has won the NCAA National championship four times, 1997, 2003, 2005 and 2008, the ECAC Championship in 2001 and appeared in the NCAA championship game on two other occasions, 1994 and 2002. The men's basketball team captured the ECAC championship in 1995, while the men's track and field placed third at the NCAA Division II Outdoor Track and Field Championships in 1999 and second at the indoor championships in 2001.

Doughty, who earned a bachelor's degree in business management, has two master's degrees from NYIT: one in human resource management and one in human relations.

Doughty has served as chair of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference's men's basketball committee, the men's basketball chair of the New York Collegiate Athletic Conference, and was a member of the NCAA's Northeast Men's Basketball Regional Committee for three years. He was president of the NYCAC from 1994 through 1997, and was a member of the ECAC's Executive Council from 1989 until 1992.

In January 2001, Doughty was named to a four-year term as a member of the NCAA Division II Management Council. The council implements policies adopted by the NCAA Executive Committee and the Presidents' Council, interprets Division II bylaws, and recommends the adoption of amendments and regulations regarding Division II athletics.

As part of his Management Council responsibilities, Doughty has served on two project teams and has been a member of the committees on budget and finance, championships, the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and the honors committee.

In 2004, Doughty was selected by the National Athletic Directors Association (NACDA) as the Division II Northeast Region Athletic Director of the Year.

Doughty currently serves on the NCAA Student-Athlete Advisory Group within the student affairs division. The group supports NCAA staff in the areas of education programs, health and safety and leadership development.

During his tenure, Doughty has assisted in the development and implementation of the Bears Den fundraising club, the establishment of the Athletic Hall of Fame, the annual Bears Golf Outing, the Athletic Directors Honor roll, the BEARS mentor educational program, the Senior Awards banquet, the Bears Care Community Service program, and the Night Out on The Bears community engagement program.

"I am honored that I have been able to sustain a very fruitful career at NYIT," he says. "I have been blessed to work with great individuals who have taken the time to help me mature as an administrator, mentor, parent, and human being."

Doughty resides in Wheatley Heights, NY, with his wife, Pamela, his mother, Ida, and three children: 32-year-old Brandon, 24-year-old Jessica, and 20-year-old Andre.
