After starting the season 1-2 with a trip out West, the NYIT women's basketball program came back to the east coast to finish the opening portion of their season at 5-5, through the end of November. The even record jump-started a 16-game win streak, including notable wins against Roberts Wesleyan, Queens College and the University of the District of Columbia. To conclude the regular season, NYIT posted an 18-2 overall conference record and stood at 24-7 ahead of the East Coast Conference tournament. The team earned their first No. 1 seed and regular season title heading into the tournament where they were pitted against No. 4 Roberts Wesleyan in the semifinals.

Despite being tied at the half, the Bears were unable to hold on to the victory as the Redhawks took a 67-58 final decision to bounce the top-seed from the tournament. The Bears held on to a regional ranking after coming in the polls as high as third throughout the season. Prior to the ECC tournament, the team was ranked fourth in the region, but when Queens College went ahead and took their second straight conference championship title, they moved to the four spot, bumping NYIT down to the sixth seed, but still remaining as the only two ECC teams to advance to the 2016 NCAA East Region tournament hosted by top-seeded Bentley from the Northeast-10 Conference.

Several milestones were reached in the 2015-16 by both individuals and the team as a whole. Senior captain Dina Ragab reached 1,000-career points in the season opening win over Acadey of Art and became the Bears all-time leading scorer later in the season. She also became the program's all-time block leader, surpassing the 110 record set in 1988-1991 by Del Thomas and for her efforts the Cairo, Egypt native was named the ECC Player of the Year and earned a spot on the All-Conference First team (for the third time).

Head Coach Anthony Crocitto also marks the record books this season, as he picked up his 100th career win at the helm of the NYIT women's program, with a 70-56 win over Molloy College on February, 9. He was named ECC Coach of the Year for leading his team to an 18-2 conference record for the number one seed in the playoffs.

Shannon Duer and Nina Vukosavljevic also earned postseason accolades, earning a nod on the ECC All-Conference Second Team. Duer led the team in rebounds per contest (11.4) and was second on the team in points per game (11.3). Vukosavljevic was third on the team in scoring (10.5)

2016 NCAA EAST REGION WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS NCAA EAST REGION TOURNAMENT

HISTORY IN THE NCAA'S

This is just the program's second appearance in the NCAA Division II East Regional tournament. Their last time to the dance occurred in the 2012-13 season, when Crocitto and his squad set a program-best 23 wins in a season and made the tournament. This season the Bears surpassed that record in their final game of the season, to post a 24-7 overall record at the conclusion of the regular season.

THE FIELD

This year's NCAA East Region tournament has a combination of teams from the Northeast-10 Conference (NE-10), East Coast Conference (ECC) and the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference (CACC). The NE-10 has three teams appearing, including conference champions No. 1 Bentley University (25-5), who will also take on hosting duties, No. 8 Saint Anselm (18-9) and No. 2 American International College (25-5). From the ECC are No. 4 Queens College (20-8), winners of their second consecutive conference championship and No. 6 NYIT (24-8). The CACC has three teams as well in No. 3 Philadelphia University (25-6), No. 5 Holy Family University (22-8) and No. 7 Bloomfield College (24-7).

NYIT vs. THE FIELD

The Bears post a 17-56 all-time record against this year's East Region field. Against the field this year, the Bears are 2-2, with two wins over Queens College and dropping a game each to Bentley University and Holy Family. NYIT will take on Philadelphia University in the first round of this year's tournament. Philadelphia is 18-5 all time against NYIT, including a 67-66 victory in their last meeting on Nov. 15, 2009 in the Gallagher Center. The Rams have won the last three showdowns with the Bears.

HEAD COACH ANTHONY CROCITTO

Hofstra '95, Seventh Season

Anthony Crocitto was named the sixth head women's basketball coach at NYIT in 2009 and enters his seventh season at the helm of the Bears. In six seasons, he has compiled an 89-80 overall record and stands at 59-50 in the East Coast Conference.

Last season, Crocitto and the Bears posted a 20-11 overall record for his second 20+ win season since becoming head coach. Their 13-7 ECC record landed them fourth in the conference and a berth into the ECC Tournament for the third consecutive year. After defeating LIU Post by a tight 76-71 decision, NYIT advanced to the championship game by way of a 73-69 defeat of District of Columbia. In heartbreaking fashion, Queens College pulled out a 65-63 victory, despite a 15-point performance by Nina Vukosavljevic. Dina Ragab and Shanice Allen were named to the first and second All-Conference and All-Met teams, respectively.

The 2013-2014 campaign featured a seven-game win streak and a 13-7 finish in the ECC, with an 18-10 overall record. Falling in the semifinals to LIU Post, 85-66, two players earned All-ECC accolades in Ragab and Alex Venuto. Senior Rebecca Romeo was named to the ECC All-Tournament team for her playoff performance and Demitra Apergis was one of 446 female student-athletes nominated for the 2014 NCAA Woman of the Year award. Ragab's awards continued as she was included on the All-Met Second Team.

With an NYIT-career high wins, Crocitto led the Bears to a 23-6 overall record in 2012-13, making an appearance in the ECC Championship game and earning a berth into the NCAA Tournament. NYIT faced Dowling College in both games, to eventually end their season. Four players earned inclusion on All-ECC squads and Nikki Jo Rotolo and Rebecca Lynch were named All-Met.

For the first time in his tenure, Crocitto directed the Blue and Gold to a double-digit win season, going 16-13 and 9-7 in the conference and appeared in the ECC quarterfinals. Despite losing in the first round, two players earned All-ECC Second Team accolades; Baker and Rotolo.

In 2010-11, NYIT rebounded with an 8-18 overall record and a 6-15 ECC mark. Junior transfer Cierra Baker, who played for Crocitto at Longwood University, averaged a season double-double with 17.5 points per game and 12.4 rebounds per game and earned All-ECC First Team and All-Met honors. Freshman Demitra Apergis finished eighth in the ECC in assists after leading NYIT with 70 and earned All-Rookie team honors.

It was a true transition year for the Bears in Crocitto's inaugural campaign, as they compiled a meager 4-23 overall record and a 4-15 mark in the East Coast Conference. Madison Robertson led the team with 13.8 points and 6.5 rebounds, per game, while Latoya Anderson added 11.2 points per game.

Crocitto brings a total of 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to his position. He spent two seasons as the top assistant for the women's basketball program at Longwood University and served as the assistant head coach at the University of Central Florida in Orlando (2006-2007) after a two-year stint (2004-2006) as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Hofstra University in Hempstead, N.Y. His recruiting efforts at UCF included three national rankings in the nation's top 50, while also assisting with academic monitoring that led to a team GPA above 3.0 each semester. He helped accomplish the same team academic successes at Hofstra, which finished 19-12 during 2005-2006 enroute to earning the school's first post-season win in the WNIT.
