I. 2017-18 NYIT Graduating Student Survey Highlights

- ❖ The mean overall ratings of students' experience at NYIT by campus (where 1 = poor and 5 = excellent) are 3.80 for the New York City (Manhattan) campus and 3.75 for the Long Island (Old Westbury) campus. See page 15 for the three-year rating trend.
- ❖ About 94% of respondents are employed at the time of the survey. Trends in overall employment rates and other employment details can be found on pages 3-4.
- ❖ Approximately 50% of graduates from the New York City (Manhattan) campus and 57% of graduates from the Long Island (Old Westbury) campus reported that they participated in experiential learning (defined as internships, externships, fieldwork, practicums, student teaching, and/or clerkships) during their time at NYIT.

Procedure

Beginning in spring 2019, all graduates for the academic year 2017-2018 (August 2017 through July 2018) were contacted by email and invited to participate in the online survey. The email included a greeting from the Institutional Research and Assessment department as well as the link to the online survey. Three different email addresses were used for alumni – NYIT email address, personal email address (collected throughout their time at NYIT), and alumni email address (collected at the point of graduation). All 2,457 graduates from August 2017 through July 2018 were first contacted via either their alumni, personal or NYIT email address; once five reminders were sent, respondents were removed from the pool and remaining alumni were contacted up to four times via their next best email address (1,870 emails sent). Last, emails for non-respondents were sent to the last best address (1,639 emails sent). Overall, 2,457 alumni were contacted and 2,356 successful email deliveries were made, which yielded 744 partial and complete responses (32.0%).
